

Creative Writing Class
Dr. Sigalas

- Choose 2 or 3 of these people as your characters. Look for people whose stories you want to know.
- Base a character on each of the photos
- Write a two-page scene (in play form) with these 2 or 3 characters and follow these guidelines:
 - Use just one setting
 - One of the characters must have an important secret from the other(s) and doesn't tell it.
 - The scene must have conflict.
 - Speakers should sometimes interrupt one another (like people always do).
 - STRETCH YOURSELF: If you usually go for comedy, make this scene serious; if you usually write serious scenes, try to make this one funny.
 - The scene needs to have a beginning, middle, and end
 - End the scene without resolving the conflict -- don't solve the problem. Pretend as if this is the opening scene of a longer play.
